

Learner-Centered Initiatives, Inc.
Conversion to New York State Rating Categories

The rubric has four performance rating categories that match the ratings of highly effective, effective, developing, and ineffective. The rubric is highly diagnostic in nature enabling users to gather fine-grained data on specific leadership behaviors as well as clustered information on the six ISSLC do-mains and the 6 MPPR dimensions of culture, capacity building, goal setting, strategic planning, instructional program and sustainability.