

Peter McNally

Peter McNally presently serves as the Executive Director of the New York State Federation of School Administrators (NYSFSA). In addition, Mr. McNally served as President of the NYS Federation of School Administrators (NYSFSA) from 2006 to 2012 and also serves as Chairman of the NYS Administrators Consortium(NYSSAC), two groups that lobby Albany on behalf of administrators and supervisors statewide. From January 2009 through June 2010, he served on the NYSED Cohesive Leadership Committee. In July, 2012, Peter was elected as a Vice President of the American Federation of School Administrators (AFSA) .

Peter served as Executive Vice President of CSA (2006 to 2012) after six years of service as the union's First Vice President. He was a member of the August 2011 graduating class of the NYS AFL-CIO/Cornell Advanced Union Leadership Institute.

Mr. McNally's teaching career began in general education in 1976 after which he worked with children with emotional problems. He also worked as a teacher trainer and then a Supervisor of Special Education in District 24 for four years before his appointment as Principal of PS 229, D. 24, Queens in 1989.

Over the years, Mr. McNally has made many presentations to state and national organizations including at several annual conventions of the National Association of Elementary School Principals and PBS Celebration of Teaching and Learning. He was a member of the Executive Committee of the Principal Leadership Network at Brown University/US DOE Northeast Regional Lab for five years, and was Chairman of the Board of Directors of the School Leaders Network from 2005 to 2012.

