Dear [REDACTED]

This letter serves as a follow-up to our email regarding the question of compliance with our charter. In our renewal report, it reads that “the school’s schedule does not appear to provide the 7.5 hours of daily instruction set forth in the charter.” I recently reread our charter, which indicates that we “are a year-round program offering more than 200 instructional days (20 more than a traditional school), and a 7.5-hour day (an hour more than a traditional school).” I realize that this letter and my email are outside of the factual correction time frame, but I wanted to clarify this point in writing to allow all parties to move forward with an accurate understanding. As always, I appreciate your continued support and that of the Charter School Office. Please feel free to reach out to me if there are any questions. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Julie A. Locey
Principal
