New York State Chancellor Betty A. Rosa has said that the Board of Regents should be strengthened and made more transparent, and that the Board of Regents should have a more active role in the governance of the State University of New York.

New York State Chancellor Betty A. Rosa has also said that the Board of Regents should be strengthened and made more transparent, and that the Board of Regents should have a more active role in the governance of the State University of New York.

The Blue Ribbon Commission

The Blue Ribbon Commission, which was established in 1991, is responsible for overseeing the governance of the State University of New York. The Commission is composed of members from various backgrounds, including education, business, and government.

1. What is the role of the Board of Regents in the governance of the State University of New York?

2. How does the Board of Regents ensure that the University's strategic plans are aligned with the state's educational goals?

3. How does the Board of Regents ensure that the University's fiscal policies are sound and sustainable?

4. How does the Board of Regents ensure that the University's academic programs are of the highest quality?

5. How does the Board of Regents ensure that the University's facilities and infrastructure are maintained and updated?

"The Blue Ribbon Commission is committed to ensuring that the State University of New York is a world-class institution that provides a high-quality education to all New Yorkers. We believe that the Board of Regents should be strengthened and made more transparent, and that the Board of Regents should have a more active role in the governance of the State University of New York." - Chancellor Lester W. Young, Jr.
“As a result of our efforts to support students and families through educational challenges, NYSED launched a dashboard website at nysed.gov/grad-measures, which features data on student graduation rates, trends, and demographics. The website is accessible to the public and includes an FAQ section for additional information.

- Commissioner Betty A. Rosa

Additional resources:
- nysed.gov/grad-measures
- GradMeasures@nysed.gov
- Hashtag: #NYSGradMeasures on Twitter, Facebook, LinkedIn.