

Professional Development for Religious and Independent School Teachers
Application Instructions
2023-2024

As an eligible teacher, you can take select online courses through the University at Buffalo's Graduate School of Education for professional development. To do so, you must apply for non-degree status with the Graduate School of Education. Please follow the steps below:

1. Complete an online application for non-degree status:

Deadlines*

- Summer 2023 courses: May 20, 2023 (classes begin 5/30/2023)
- Fall 2023 courses: August 20, 2023 (classes begin 8/28/2023)
- Winter 2024 courses: December 15, 2023 (classes begin 12/28/2023)
- Spring 2024 courses: January 15, 2024 (classes begin 1/24/2024)

*Deadlines are based on availability of funding and are subject to change

Complete the application and view available courses at ed.buffalo.edu/prof-development

- Upload a copy of your undergraduate transcript (an unofficial copy is acceptable) showing the conferral date of your bachelor's degree
 - Upload proof of your employment at an eligible religious or independent school (letter from your school leader, copy of ID card, current paystub, etc...)
- 2. Wait for review: Once your online application and bachelor's degree transcripts have been received, your application will be reviewed.
- 3. Enroll: Once you have been granted non-degree status, you will receive information on the next steps for enrollment, including submission of a required form confirming your course selection(s).
