Test Sampler Answer Sheet ................................................ 43
INTRODUCTION TO THE NYSESLAT TEST SAMPLER

Each spring across New York State, English Language Learners and Multilingual Learners (ELLs/MLLs) in Kindergarten and Grades 1–12 take the New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test (NYSESLAT) in order to assess their English language proficiency and determine appropriate services in Bilingual Education and English as a New Language programs.

NYSESLAT test samplers, or practice tests, are available for educators, students, and parents to show the types of directions and questions students will encounter when they take the NYSESLAT. It is also an opportunity for educators to clarify directions or answer any questions that the student may have. The NYSESLAT Test Sampler may be used to help students become familiar with the mechanics of using an answer sheet. These samplers are not the full length of the actual test.

The NYSESLAT Test Sampler consists of two separate sets of materials:

- Test booklets (one for each grade band)
- Directions for Administration (DFA) manuals (one for each grade band)

In addition to the administration script, the DFAs contain rubrics that will be used to score Speaking and Writing responses. Examples of student responses to the Speaking and Writing prompts are also included.

In-depth information about the logistics of administering the NYSESLAT will be available in both the School Administrator’s Manual and grade specific DFAs used in the spring administration of the NYSESLAT.

Please visit the Office of State Assessment web site for more information and updates regarding the NYSESLAT: http://www.p12.nysed.gov/assessment/nyeslat.

- A supply of sharpened soft-lead (No. 2) pencils with erasers; extra pencils must be on hand

Materials Required for Each Student

ADMINISTERING THE NYSESLAT TEST SAMPLER

Test Sampler Administration

Educators, students, and parents are welcome and encouraged to use the test sampler in whichever way will best benefit students and help them prepare for the NYSESLAT. The instructions in the sampler DFA have been developed to closely resemble those used during the operational administration. You may choose to practice administration of all sections, just a few, or only one.

The answer sheet for the test sampler can be found at the end of this DFA. Detach the answer sheet and make enough copies for each student taking the test sampler.

Be sure to use your demonstration sampler test booklet as instructed.

Use a natural tone and manner throughout testing. Enunciate, use appropriate intonation, speak at a normal pace, and speak loudly enough for students to hear you.

If you make a mistake in reading a direction or question, stop and say, “No, that is wrong. I’ll say it again. Please listen.” Then read the direction or question again.
All directions that should be read out loud to students are printed in boldface text with a SAY icon beside them. These should be read exactly as they are written. If necessary, you may supplement the directions with your own explanations in English or repeat them.

Students will encounter two types of Writing prompts on the NYSESLAT: short constructed response and extended constructed response. This test sampler includes one of each, so that students may practice responding to either type, or both. During operational administration, however, each of the three NYSESLAT Listening/Reading/Writing sessions will include only one Writing prompt. Some educators may find it useful to present students with both prompts for practice, and others may wish to present only one.

Evaluating Test Sampler Responses

To review and evaluate student responses to questions on the test sampler, refer to the “Listening and Reading Answer Key” section of this manual. The NYSESLAT Speaking Test Sampler Score Sheet on Pages 23–24 should be used to evaluate a student’s Speaking responses during test administration. Rubrics have also been provided for evaluating students’ Speaking and Writing responses. These reference materials have been provided so that you may evaluate students’ responses and provide feedback to them if you wish; there is no requirement to score responses to the NYSESLAT Test Sampler questions.

If you would like to learn more about scoring responses for the NYSESLAT, please refer to the Turnkey Training Speaking and Writing materials and webinar modules available at http://www.p12.nysed.gov/assessment/nyseslat.
SPEAKING ADMINISTRATION

Speaking Instructions

IMPORTANT NOTE

The Speaking section requires individual administration in a location separate from other students. Each student will need his or her sampler test booklet to view the Speaking questions when taking the test.

The examiner should use a copy of the Speaking Score Sheet on Pages 23–24, which contains language from the Speaking rubrics for reference, to evaluate a student’s spoken responses during test administration. It is important to review and become familiar with the Speaking rubrics prior to administration of the Speaking test sampler.

SAY Today we are going to answer some practice NYSESLAT questions. These questions will help you get ready to take the NYSESLAT. While we practice taking the test, I will be able to answer your questions about the directions and the kinds of questions that are on the test. I am going to give you a test booklet. Write your name on the front of the test booklet. We will start with the Speaking questions. Do not open your test booklet until I tell you to do so.

Pause.

SAY Are you ready to start?

Pause.

SAY Open your booklet to Page 1. This is the first page of the Speaking activity.

Make sure the student has Page 1 of the sampler test booklet showing.

SAY Look at the top of the page. Read the directions to yourself as I read them out loud.

Directions: I am going to ask you some questions. Listen and then answer. Be sure to answer in English using your own words.

Do you understand what to do? Do you have any questions?

Proceed with administration after answering any questions that the student may have.
QUESTION 1

Pause for the student to look at Page 1.

A long time ago, people wrote letters on paper to communicate. These letters took a long time to arrive by mail.

Today many people use computers and cell phones to write messages to friends and family. We can send e-mails on the computer. We can also send text messages on our cell phones. These types of messages get to people much faster than writing and mailing letters.

This woman is writing an e-mail.

Question 1: Tell me what other people do to communicate.

Pause for about 5 seconds for the student to respond. If the student gives no response,

This woman is writing an e-mail. How do other people write?

QUESTION 2

Please turn the page.

Pause for the student to turn the page.

In the 1860s, there were no phones or computers to communicate with people who were far away. People wrote letters to their friends and families, and men rode horses across the United States to deliver the letters. This service was called the Pony Express.

Tell me how this woman’s letter got delivered to her friend.

Pause for about 5 seconds for the student to respond. If more language is needed,

Tell me more.

Pause for the student to look at Page 3.

Drum music is thousands of years old and is played all over the world. Almost every culture has its own kind of drum.

For example, in Ireland, people play a bodhrán [BAU-rawn] drum, which is made of wood and animal skin.

In parts of West Africa, women play an udu drum, which is made of clay.

In the Caribbean, people play steel drums, which are made of metal.

Question 3: Tell me how drums around the world are made of different things.

Pause for about 5 seconds for the student to respond.

QUESTION 4

Please turn the page.

Pause for the student to turn the page.

A Gamelan [GAH-meh-lahn] music group is made up mostly of people who play drum instruments. These instruments are made out of wood, metal, or iron. Musicians play the instruments with their hands or with a stick called a mallet.

Some instruments, like the gong, only make one sound. Larger instruments make lower sounds.

Smaller instruments make higher sounds. Together, the group plays a melody using these different sounds.

Question 4: Why does a Gamelan group use instruments that are different sizes?

Pause for about 5 seconds for the student to respond.

Look at Page 5.

Pause for the student to look at Page 5.

Directions: Now let’s talk about a group of people in South America.

The Yanomami [YAH-no-MAH-mee] are a group of people who live in South American rain forests. They settle in villages near rivers. Everyone in the village lives together in one big house shaped like a circle. In the middle is a shared open space used for activities like games and feasts. Each family has its own area with a fireplace to cook their meals. At night, they build a fire in the middle to keep everyone warm. For food, everyone shares what they bring back from hunting and gathering crops.

Question 5: Tell me what a Yanomami village is like.

Pause for about 5 seconds for the student to respond.

QUESTION 6

Please turn the page.

Pause for the student to turn the page. NOTE: The passage is reprinted in the test booklet to orient the student. Do not read it out loud.

You just learned about a group of people in South America.

Question 6: Do you think building their village in a circle helps the Yanomami people?

Pause for about 5 seconds for the student to respond. If more language is needed,

Why? [OR] Why not?

When the student is finished with their response,

Thank you. We are finished with the Speaking activity. Please close your test booklet so that the front cover is on top.

If you plan to continue with administration of Listening, Reading, and Writing, proceed to Page 8 of the DFA.
STARTING LISTENING, READING, AND WRITING

Instructions for Starting Administration of Listening, Reading, and Writing

Ensure each student has a copy of the sampler test booklet and sampler answer sheet.

SAY We are going to practice answering some more NYSESLAT questions. You will need to use an answer sheet to mark your answers to the questions.

Hold up a demonstration answer sheet.

SAY Make sure the answer sheet is facing up. Write your name at the top of the page in the box labeled Student Name. You will mark the answers to some of the questions by filling in circles on this answer sheet. There are numbered answer spaces for each question.

When you mark your answers, remember to:

- Fill in the circle completely. (Illustrate on the board if necessary.)
- Fill in only one circle per question. If you fill in more than one circle, your answer will not count.
- If you change your mind about an answer, erase it completely.
- Do not make any stray marks on your answer sheet.

Do you understand how to fill in the circles? Do you have any questions?

Answer any questions that the students may have about marking their answer sheets.
LISTENING ADMINISTRATION

Listening Instructions

IMPORTANT NOTE

The NYSESLAT Listening section of the test sampler is administered by the examiner, who reads questions out loud from a script. This differs from the Grades 3–12 NYSESLAT Listening test, administered during the operational testing window, which is designed to be administered to groups of students using a Listening CD.

Before administering the Listening section of the test sampler to students, thoroughly familiarize yourself with the directions in this manual. The material that should be read out loud to students is printed in boldface text next to a SAY icon. This material should be read exactly as it is written. If necessary, you may supplement the directions with your own explanations in English, but all questions must be read out loud exactly as they are written.

SAY  Open your test booklet to Page 9. This is the Listening section.

Hold up the demonstration sampler test booklet and turn to the correct page. Check that all students have their sampler test booklets open to the correct page.

SAY  In this part of the practice test, you will listen to a passage and then answer questions about the passage. After I ask you a question, use your answer sheet to fill in the circle for the answer you think is correct.

Do you understand what to do? Do you have any questions?

Pause to answer any questions that the students may have.

SAY  Look at the directions on Page 9. Directions: Listen to the passage. Then answer Questions 1 through 6. Fill in the correct circle on your answer sheet.

Now listen carefully.
Broadway is a famous street in New York City. There are many theaters on this street near the center of the city. In these theaters, actors perform in plays and musical shows. In a play, actors speak the words; in a musical, they sing to tell the story. Sometimes Broadway is called the “Great White Way” because there are bright white lights on the many theater signs.

The first theater in New York City was built in 1732. Later, more theaters were built. By the early 1900s, people went to the theater often. About 150 years after the first theater was built, people began to make movies on film to tell stories. The first movies had no sound. Then in 1927, there was a movie with talking and singing actors. This was exciting. People started going to the movies, so the live theaters did not make much money. However, a play or musical is different from a movie because live actors are on the stage. This is one reason people started going to the theater again. Today, many people go to movies and to the theater.

“Which word or words tell when the first theater in New York City was built?”

A Later
B In 1732
C Early 1900s
D Often
Look at Question 2.

The passage says, “Broadway is a famous street in New York City.”

Which words from the passage tell something else about the street?

A Many theaters
B On film
C Tell stories
D Much money

Pause for about 15 seconds.

Look at Question 3. Listen to this sentence from the passage again. Then I will ask you, “Which words help tell the meaning of movies?”

“About 150 years after the first theater was built, people began to make movies on film to tell stories.”

Which words help tell the meaning of movies?

A 150 years
B First theater
C People began
D Tell stories

Pause for about 15 seconds.

Look at Question 4.

Which words from the passage tell what an actor does in a musical?

A Speak the words
B Sing to tell the story
C Not make much money
D Go to movies

Pause for about 15 seconds.
Look at Question 5. Listen to these sentences from the passage again. Then I will ask you, “Which words help tell the meaning of perform?”

“There are many theaters on this street near the center of the city. In these theaters, actors perform in plays and musical shows. In a play, actors speak the words; in a musical, they sing to tell the story. Sometimes Broadway is called the ‘Great White Way’ because there are bright white lights on the many theater signs.”

Which words help tell the meaning of perform?

A. Street, city
B. Theaters, center
C. Speak, sing
D. Lights, signs

Pause for about 15 seconds.

Look at Question 6.

Which words from the passage tell how going to a theater is different from going to a movie?

A. Near the center of the city
B. Speak the words
C. Sing to tell the story
D. Live actors are on the stage

Pause for about 15 seconds.

When the last student has completed the Listening section,

Put your pencil down and close your test booklet so that the front cover is on top. This is the end of the Listening activity.
Reading Instructions

IMPORTANT NOTE

The material that should be read out loud to students is printed in boldface text next to a SAY icon. This material should be read exactly as it is written. If necessary, you may supplement the directions with your own explanations in English.

SAY Now you are going to practice answering some Reading questions. Open your test booklet to Page 13.

Hold up the demonstration sampler test booklet and turn to the correct page. Check that all students have their sampler test booklets open to the correct page.

SAY In this part of the practice test, you will read a passage and answer questions about the passage. You will use your answer sheet to fill in the circle for the answer you think is correct.

You will now read a passage by yourself and answer some questions about the passage. For each question, mark the correct answer on your answer sheet. When you come to the stop sign on Page 17, you will be finished with this section of the test. You may review the current section, but do not return to the Listening section or go on to the next section. When you are finished, put your pencil down, close your test booklet so that the front cover is on top, and look up.

Pause.

SAY Do you understand what to do? Do you have any questions?

Pause to answer any questions that the students may have.

SAY You may begin.

When the last student has completed the Reading section,

SAY Put your pencil down and close your test booklet so that the front cover is on top. This is the end of the Reading activity.

To administer the short constructed response Writing task, proceed to the next page of this DFA.
IMPORTANT NOTE

The material that should be read out loud to students is printed in boldface text next to a SAY icon. This material should be read exactly as it is written. If necessary, you may supplement the directions with your own explanations in English, but the Writing prompt must be read out loud exactly as it is written.

SAY Now we will practice a Writing activity. Open your test booklet to Page 19.

Hold up the demonstration sampler test booklet and turn to the correct page. Check that all students have their sampler test booklets open to the correct page.

SAY Read the directions to yourself as I read them out loud.

Directions: Read this passage. Then you will be asked to write one paragraph based on the passage.

You may now read this passage to yourself as I read it out loud.

The First Practice

Jessica looked out the car window as her mother drove up to the large doors of the theater. It was the first day of practice for the play, and Jessica was going to be a rabbit. She had never acted before, and she was nervous.

“See you in two hours,” her mother said. “Good luck!”

Jessica took a deep breath and entered the building. The director, a tall woman with a kind face, stood in the hall. Jessica felt more comfortable knowing that this woman would be in charge of the play.

“Jessica, I’m so glad you’re joining our cast. Here’s your script.” She gave Jessica a small book with each actor’s lines from the play. “Oh, and you can call me Ms. G.” Jessica was not sure what to say. “I’m nervous,” she finally admitted.

“I understand,” Ms. G. smiled. “But all you have to do today is read some lines from the play and meet the other actors. After that, I’ll tell you exactly where to stand and walk.”

“That’s not too hard,” Jessica thought.

“Soon you’ll learn the lines and we’ll give you a rabbit costume. By opening night, you’ll be ready to perform.”

“That sounds like a lot of fun,” Jessica thought. As she entered the practice room to meet everyone, she relaxed.

In the passage, both Jessica’s mother and the director of the play help Jessica. Think about a person who helps you. Write one paragraph to tell who helps you and how the person helps you. Use your own ideas and from the passage to help you write.

Look at Question 13 on Page 20 in your test booklet.

Now read the directions below to yourself as I read them out loud.

Moon Ball

Ms. Hernandez is reading a story to her fourth-grade class. The story is about a boy, Sam, who lives in the future. The story begins on his first day of school.

“Sam loves school because he learns new things. And now, in fourth grade, he can play Moon Ball in gym class.”

After breakfast, Sam grabbed his computer. It was thin, square, and lightweight, like a small book. The computer could show any of Sam’s schoolbooks on the computer screen. His mother said that long ago his grandparents carried all their books in a backpack. He couldn’t imagine that! Sam rushed outside to ride the bus to school.

At school, Sam enjoyed his classes and listened closely. After lunch, he hurried to the gym to play Moon Ball. The students were divided into two teams. The Moon Ball room was round and white with a high ceiling. A ball and two goals were inside the room. Each team tries to throw the ball into the other team’s goal.

When the students were ready, the teacher turned off the gravity. Gravity is the force that keeps people on the ground. When it was turned off, everyone started to move slowly around the room. Sam laughed because he liked the feeling of floating. He thought, “This must be what it is like to be on the Moon!” The students enjoyed floating around the room, but no one was able to score.

Then Sam’s friend Ana threw the ball. Sam tried to get to the ball quickly, but he had trouble since the gravity was turned off. He kicked his feet and moved his arms like he was swimming. Finally, he got close and grabbed the ball. Although he was floating upside down, he threw it into the goal. Sam’s team won! Sam thought Moon Ball was great fun. He looked forward to playing again.

Ms. Hernandez smiled when she finished reading the story. “I think all of you would love Moon Ball,” she said.
There is a checklist at the top of the page. Use this checklist to guide your work as you are writing.

The checklist says:

Holistic Scoring

The Speaking assessment is scored holistically. Holistic scoring consists of assigning a single score that is based on a scorer’s overall impression of a student's spoken response. Scorers should look at all aspects of the rubric. Performance does not have to include all aspects of the rubric to merit a rating at that level. Conversely, performance should include most aspects of the rubric to merit a rating at that level. A scorer should listen carefully and judge which rubric level best matches all aspects of the response.

Grades 3–4/Emerging (Question 1)

Introduction: [POINT to PICTURE 1] A long time ago, people wrote letters on paper to communicate. These letters took a long time to arrive by mail.

[POINT to PICTURES 2 AND 3] Today many people use computers and cell phones to write messages to friends and family. We can send e-mails on the computer. We can also send text messages on our cell phones. These types of messages get to people much faster than writing and mailing letters.

Modeling: [POINT to PICTURE 2] This woman is writing an e-mail.

Question: Tell me what other people do to communicate.

[REPHRASING]: [POINT to PICTURE 2] This woman is writing an e-mail. How do other people write?

Response

| Call [unintelligible] the other people... with the phone... Write with with paper... and use the computer. | 1 | Student uses short phrases to respond. There are some hesitations and pauses throughout the response but meaning is generally clear. This is scored as a “1” at the Emerging level. |

Score

Justification
Introduction: In the 1860s, there were no phones or computers to communicate with people who were far away. People wrote letters to their friends and families, and men rode horses across the United States to deliver the letters. This service was called the Pony Express.

Question: [POINT to PICTURE 1] Tell me how this woman’s letter got delivered to her friend.

[FOLLOW-UP]: Tell me more.

Response: “With uh with with a person. That’s called Pony Express.”

Score: 2

Justification: Student responds with a phrase and a simple sentence to express a complete thought. This is rated a “2” at the Transitioning level.
Introduction: Drum music is thousands of years old and is played all over the world. Almost every culture has its own kind of drum.

[POINT to PICTURE 1] For example, in Ireland, people play a bodhrán [bau-rawn] drum, which is made of wood and animal skin.

[POINT to PICTURE 2] In parts of West Africa, women play an udu drum, which is made of clay.

[POINT to PICTURE 3] In the Caribbean, people play steel drums, which are made of metal.

Question: Tell me how drums around the world are made of different things.

Response

“Um in in uh inland, I don’t know how to say this word, in this place you gotta get skin from animals, then put it in a wood, and then you make a drum. In West Africa, you gotta get clay and then make it to a drum, and in Cariddean, you gotta get metal and built it with your hands.”

Score 2

Justification

Student responds with multiple connected sentences. The response contains infrequent errors but these generally do not obscure meaning and the student expresses complete thoughts relevant to the topic. This is scored a “2” at the Expanding level.
Introduction: A Gamelan music group is made up mostly of people who play drum instruments. These instruments are made out of wood, metal, or iron. Musicians play the instruments with their hands or with a stick called a mallet.

[POINT to GONG] Some instruments, like the gong, only make one sound. Larger instruments make lower sounds.

[POINT to SMALLER INSTRUMENTS] Smaller instruments make higher sounds. Together, the group plays a melody using these different sounds.

Question: Why does a Gamelan group use instruments that are different sizes?

Response: “Because these Gamelan use eh different size of instrument because they make uh the more sound uh and they make like more notes. Like large instruments make lower notes, small instruments make higher notes, and together they make one song, good song.”

Score: 2

Justification: Although the response includes some language taken directly from the item, the original language includes connected expanded sentences that express complete thoughts relevant to the topic. This is scored a “2” at the Commanding level.
Introduction: Now let's talk about a group of people in South America.

The Yanomami are a group of people who live in South American rain forests. They settle in villages near rivers. Everyone in the village lives together in one big house shaped like a circle. In the middle is a shared open space used for activities like games and feasts. Each family has its own area with a fireplace to cook their meals. At night, they build a fire in the middle to keep everyone warm. For food, everyone shares what they bring back from hunting and gathering crops.

Question: Tell me what a Yanomami village is like.

Response

“The Ya—the Yammmm...ummm... [unintelligible] They all live together in a big circle. They go in the middle for games and stuff. And they make fires.”

Score

2

Justification

This response uses some expanded sentences, and it clearly expresses thoughts and ideas. The student seems to stumble over the pronunciation of “Yanomami” at the beginning of the response, but otherwise, the response is fairly fluid. This response would score a “2” at the Expanding level.
Introduction: You just learned about a group of people in South America. The Yanomami are a group of people who live in South American rain forests. They settle in villages near rivers. Everyone in the village lives together in one big house shaped like a circle. In the middle is a shared open space used for activities like games and feasts. Each family has its own area with a fireplace to cook their meals. At night, they build a fire in the middle to keep everyone warm. For food, everyone shares what they bring back from hunting and gathering crops.

Question: Do you think building their village in a circle helps the Yanomami people?

Response

“Umm I think so?" [examiner prompts “Why?”] "Well...they can make fires in the middle part to stay warm...and then everybody can come out and cook some food. They can share the food so everyone gets some.”

Score

2

Justification

The student responds with a fluid response that clearly sequences thoughts and ideas. This is scored a “2” at the Commanding level.
Evaluating the Writing of the English Language Learner Using the Five Dimensions of the Writing Scoring Rubric

Complexity of Language (CL)

Since typical sentence markers—a capital letter at the beginning and a period at the end—are often absent in English Language Learner/Multilingual Learner (ELL/MLL) writing, it is necessary to look for the elements of a basic sentence in English—a subject, a verb, and, perhaps, an object. When these elements are present and in the correct order (S-V-O), the student has produced a sentence. An increased number of sentences representing different ideas and varying structures is one indication of the complexity or development seen in higher-proficiency writing.

Language complexity is also demonstrated in the type and accuracy of grammatical structures used. With the addition of structures such as prepositional and infinitive phrases, simple sentences take on some complexity and become expanded sentences. Advanced structures, like subordinate clauses (beginning with “because,” “when,” “if,” etc.), can also be found sometimes in higher-proficiency writing.

Quality of Language (QL)

In the scoring rubric, the dimension of Quality of Language references Tier 1 and Tier 2 words—and at Grades 7–12 only, Tier 3 words. The table shown below explains tier vocabulary and provides some examples.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Tier 1 – Everyday Words</th>
<th>Examples</th>
<th>“Fire”</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Include the most basic words used in everyday speech</td>
<td>big, cat, chair, child, clock, family, happy, house, pizza, sad, school, walk</td>
<td>fire, flame</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Require direct instruction only for Entering and some Emerging ELLs/MLLs</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rarely have multiple meanings</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Tier 2 – Cross-Subject Words</th>
<th>Examples</th>
<th>“Fire”</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Include words frequently used across a variety of content domains</td>
<td>complex, contrast, element, establish, evidence, formulate, negative, measure, relative, segment, shift, structure, vary</td>
<td>blaze, fiery</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Often have multiple meanings</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Often have multiple synonyms</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Tier 3 – Subject-Specific Words</th>
<th>Examples</th>
<th>“Fire”</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Include words that are specific to a field of study, a hobby, an occupation, or a geographic region</td>
<td>lava, isotope, peninsula, legislature, circumference, mitosis, protagonist, circulatory system</td>
<td>combustion, inferno</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Another feature that differentiates higher-proficiency from lower-proficiency writing is word choice. In higher-proficiency writing, choice of vocabulary will become more precise and descriptive; for example, “the dilapidated building” might be used instead of “the old building.” As a student’s writing ability develops, a few idiomatic words and phrases may be used. Although the use might be somewhat inappropriate, the attempt to incorporate idiomatic language is a developmental sign of higher-proficiency writing. It is not uncommon for words like “cool” and “stuff,” which are more appropriate for spoken language, to occur more frequently in lower-proficiency writing.

Coherence of Response (CR)

Organization as delineated in Coherence of Response is an important dimension in the rubric. The logical progression of ideas, linking words (“so,” “then,” “next,” etc.), and, to a much lesser extent, the use of paragraphs, contribute to organization in writing. In higher-proficiency writing, where students are capable of expressing more ideas, the ability to organize the ideas becomes a characteristic that can help differentiate between score points 3 and 4.

Degree of Response (DR)

Another important dimension in the rubric is Degree of Response, or the level at which ideas include details or support. This dimension is the only dimension that is specific to the type of Writing prompt presented to the students. For a short constructed response (SCR), Degree would include details and descriptions of ideas. For a narrative extended constructed response (ECR), Degree would include details, descriptions, and references to characters and events in sequence. For an informational extended constructed response (ECR), Degree would include opinions with reasons, connected or linked ideas, support, and claims and evidence. In upper-level writing, where students are capable of expressing their thoughts and ideas more completely, the ability to present ideas with adequate and precise details and support helps differentiate between score points 3 and 4.

Mechanics (M)

One of the most visible and pervasive characteristics of the writing of ELLs/MLLs at all ability levels is inventive or phonetic spelling. Incorrect spelling should be considered an error primarily when it interferes with comprehension or when a word is not easily recognizable as an English word. By the same token, capitalization and punctuation are only considered to the extent to which errors obscure meaning. A sentence that is recognizable without capitalization and punctuation is considered a sentence (for example, “dad sed I am Bize” (Dad said, “I am busy.”)). In upper-level writing (score points 3 and 4), there are usually fewer errors in mechanics than in lower-level writing (score points 1 and 2), but these types of errors may still be found at all levels of writing.

In general, judgments about writing will be based on the number of ideas expressed and supported (with sentences), the precision of word choice, the complexity of grammatical structures, the relevance and coherence of ideas, and the way in which all these elements are organized. Attention to mechanics depends on the extent to which meaning is obscured by errors. From lower to higher ability levels of writing, there is progressively greater fluency with fewer errors, more idiomatic language, and increased complexity.

The First Practice

Jessica looked out the car window as her mother drove up to the large doors of the theater. It was the first day of practice for the play, and Jessica was going to be a rabbit. She had never acted before, and she was nervous.

“See you in two hours,” her mother said. “Good luck!”

Jessica took a deep breath and entered the building. The director, a tall woman with a kind face, stood in the hall. Jessica felt more comfortable knowing that this woman would be in charge of the play.

“Jessica, I’m so glad you’re joining our cast. Here’s your script.” She gave Jessica a small book with each actor’s lines from the play. “Oh, and you can call me Ms. G.”

Jessica was not sure what to say. “I’m nervous,” she finally admitted.
“I understand,” Ms. G. smiled. “But all you have to do today is read some lines from the play and meet the other actors. After that, I’ll tell you exactly where to stand and walk.”

“That’s not too hard,” Jessica thought.

“Soon you’ll learn the lines and we’ll give you a rabbit costume. By opening night, you’ll be ready to perform.”

“That sounds like a lot of fun,” Jessica thought. As she entered the practice room to meet everyone, she relaxed.

Now read the directions below.

In the passage, both Jessica’s mother and the director of the play help Jessica. Think about a person who helps you. Write one paragraph to tell who helps you and how the person helps you. Use your own ideas and ideas from the passage to help you write.
On the lines below, tell who helps you and how the person helps you. Remember to use your own ideas and ideas from the passage to help you write.

My teacher helps me every day. If I don’t understand something about homework or a quiz, she helps make it easy. First she helps me have fun in class. We always learn a song or play a game to start the day. I don’t feel it’s in school because it’s fun. It helps what I’m learning stay in my brain.

Next she helps me remember things by talking them over and over. Then they are memorized and I can help my friends who don’t get it.

Finally just like the director helped Jessica, my teacher helps me stop being nervous. And relax. This is how my teacher helps me every day.

Ms. Hernandez is reading a story to her fourth-grade class. The story is about a boy, Sam, who lives in the future. The story begins on his first day of school.

“Sam loves school because he learns new things. And now, in fourth grade, he can play Moon Ball in gym class.

After breakfast, Sam grabbed his computer. It was thin, square, and lightweight, like a small book. The computer could show any of Sam’s schoolbooks on the computer screen. His mother said that long ago his grandparents carried all their books in a backpack. He couldn’t imagine that! Sam rushed outside to ride the bus to school.
At school, Sam enjoyed his classes and listened closely. After lunch, he hurried to the gym to play Moon Ball. The students were divided into two teams. The Moon Ball room was round and white with a high ceiling. A ball and two goals were inside the room. Each team tries to throw the ball into the other team’s goal.

When the students were ready, the teacher turned off the gravity. Gravity is the force that keeps people on the ground. When it was turned off, everyone started to move slowly around the room. Sam laughed because he liked the feeling of floating. He thought, “This must be what it is like to be on the Moon!” The students enjoyed floating around the room, but no one was able to score.

Then Sam’s friend Ana threw the ball. Sam tried to get to the ball quickly, but he had trouble since the gravity was turned off. He kicked his feet and moved his arms like he was swimming. Finally, he got close and grabbed the ball. Although he was floating upside down, he threw it into the goal. Sam’s team won! Sam thought Moon Ball was great fun. He looked forward to playing again.

Ms. Hernandez smiled when she finished reading the story. “I think all of you would love Moon Ball,” she said.
14 Now read the directions below.

In the story, Sam likes to play Moon Ball. Think about a game, sport, or activity you like. Write at least two paragraphs to describe a game, sport, or activity that you like. Use your own ideas and ideas from the passage to help you write.

You may plan your writing for Question 14 here, if you wish. Use the space below to organize your ideas about what to write.

Write your final answer on Pages 27 and 28.
On the lines below, describe a game, sport, or activity that you like. Remember to use your own ideas and ideas from the passage to help you write.

IF I COULD HAVE A FUN GAME INVENTED IT WOULD BE RED LINE FOOTBALL. THE REASON WHY I PICK THIS IS BECAUSE YOU COULD WIN EASILY.

This game will be in a gym with many people cheering and shouting because I would like it if red line football will be the best game in the world. The rules of this game will be you have to wear sneakers. If you don’t you will be out of the game. Also you have to have a 2 feet wide and 2 inch tall football. However, if you don’t have the right football we will let the other team have a lighter football.

This is how you play the game. First, you need to have at least 12 people in your team. Next, you have to prepare them in their spots. Then, someone will drop the ball in the

In the middle. Your team has to get it first or else the other team will get it and throw it to their team. You have to try to score a touchdown to score one point.

The special power of the red line football is that if you stand on a red line in the gym and you throw it, it goes into your team's hand and you can do a touchdown.

I hope that game would be invented.
