

We commend the NY State Board of Regents and Commissioner King for their continued commitment to high standards for licensing teachers, and for their continued support for program innovation. This safety net policy is a clear example of honoring the standard, and providing students with support and guidance necessary to reach the standard.

We are also pleased the state has announced the availability of additional financial support for candidates.