Recruitment/Attraction Efforts Toward Meeting Targets

	Describe Recruitment Efforts n 2019-2020	Describe Recruitment Plans n 2020-2021
	RCA visits over 30 daycares n Hempstead and Uniondale where our representative meets with families and hands out flyers. In addition, we visit and leave flyers at headstart programs operated by the Economic Opportunity Commission (EOC) n Roosevelt, Freeport and Hempstead. The EOC headstart program s a primary feeder school for RCA

Economically Disadvantaged	kindergarten seats. We also visit the Hempstead Public Library Family Center. RCA has a longstand ng relationship with EOC. For example, we invite their staff to present at RCA parent workshops on topic such as nutrition, domestic violence, and immigration documentation. Since they have pre-k expertise in early childhood we refer our families with this need to consider registering early for the program. Further, RCA also acts as a resource n the EOC's interagency meetings to provide feedback and nformation about family needs at RCA. All school enrollment applications and flyers mention that the school accommodates students with disabilities, English language learners and participates in the free and reduced lunch program.	In 2019-20 RCACS has 92% of the enrollment dentified as economically disadvantaged, whereas the local district enrolls 75% ED students.
	To attract more families who speak a language other than English, we offer our advertising materials n Spanish, which is the primary language of families with English language learners n our area. We provide Spanish flyers at local daycares, EOC headstarts, and visit and provide flyers at Circulo De La Hispanidad, which is a local organization that serves Spanish-speaking families. Our lottery and registration materials are translated into Spanish. We also have a bilingual staff member

English Language Learners/Multilingual Learners	who helps answer families' questions and fill out paperwork. Prior to and during registration, we host an open house meeting in Spanish where parents can become familiar with our curriculum, program benefits, and services. Many of our ELL applicants come to RCA based on word-of-mouth recommendation. Our ELL families have high rates of satisfaction with the school; our average retention rate for ELLs s consistently near 100%. All school enrollment applications and flyers mention that the school accommodates students with disabilities, English language learners and participates in the free and reduced lunch program. In 2019-20, RCAC ensured that our online application and instructions are translated nto Spanish.	In 2019-20, our percentage of ELLs was 11% and RUFSD enrolled 30%. We recognize that our enrollment of ELLs s far below the district, however, we have increased the enrollment of ELLs in each of the past five years and we will continue to increase focus on our recruitment practices to ensure further growth n ELLs at RCACS.
	Our outreach for families with students who have special needs includes visiting over 30 daycares in Hempstead and Uniondale where our representative meets with families and hands out flyers. In addition, we visit and leave flyers at headstart programs operated by the Economic Opportunity Commission (EOC) n Roosevelt, Freeport and Hempstead. All school enrollment applications and flyers mention that the school accommodates students	In 2019-20, our percentage of

Students with Disabilities	with disabilities, English language learners and participates in the free and reduced lunch program. Our intention s to nform the families interested in high quality special education services that RCA welcomes all and will design programming based on the students specific special education needs as outlined in their Individual Education Plan (IEP) or 504 Plan. In addition, we have attended special education parent/teacher organization's meetings from various surrounding school districts within our catchment area and have presented informational material to parents who wish to learn more about the charter school experience.	SWD was 8% and our district had 14% WD. We will continue to implement our current practices, as our steady ncrease n WD enrollment, year over year, since 2016-17 ndicates that our pract ces are result ng n greater numbers of SWD enrolled at RCAC .

Retention Efforts Toward Meeting Targets

	Describe Retention Efforts n 2019-2020	Describe Retention Plans n 2020-2021
	Roosevelt Children's Academy offers all students with the opportunity for early morning drop-off at 7:30 a.m. and an after-school program until 6:30 p.m. These programs, which are free of charge, allow the parents of our students to work or attend school knowing that their child is in a safe environment. We maintain a selection of free uniforms on site for families in need. In addition, we also offer free Saturday school tutoring.

Economically Disadvantaged	RCA partners with the local public library to facilitate book lending and participation in reading programs (“Reading Tree”). In partnership with EOC, RCA offers free legal clinics on topics such as Domestic V olence and Immigration. RCA families are invited to and participate in these free community events. Our EOC partners also participate as presenters at our parent workshop. RCA also offers additional parent workshops on topics ncluding High School Planning/Scholarships, Internet Safety, Understanding the NYS literacy standards, Nutrition, F nancial Wellness/Budgeting, Interacting with Law Enforcement, Anti-Bullying, F re Safety, Family Art Day, College application process, Emotional Wellness/Mindfulness. We co er our meal program during the annual Academic Night program, on mailings to applicants, n the Student Handbook, and during tours and information sessions. Support s offered to assist families in completing all necessary paperwork to ensure eligible students participate n the lunch program.	Our retention rate for ED students was 88% between 2018-19 and 2019-20. We intend to continue the efforts n place, and will continue to focus on how to best support families .
	RCA staff members maintain close communication with families of ELL students. We work to support communication by having our ENL teacher communicate with both

English Language Learners/Multilingual Learners	classroom teachers and parents. We ensure that school events include represent a ariety of cultural backgrounds to draw families in and continue to provide high quality ELL instruction where parents are a mutual partner. W th notice a translator is made available at major events. Furthermore, a language translator dropdown is on the school's website. One of our most popular parent engagement opportunities is our Saturday parent workshop for adults learning English. We hire the Freeport Learning Center to conduct this weekly workshop, which lasts from October through May. During the workshop, we also provide free babysitting for participating parents.	Our retention rate for ELLs was 93% between 2018-19 and 2019-20. This meets the NYSED target of 95.5%. As our current strategies have resulted in exceeding the NYSED target, we will continue these practices going forward.
Students with Disabilities	We provide high quality education, above and beyond the IEP/504, which s supported by frequently assessing students' academic progress. RCAC employs a Director of RTI/Special Education. In addition, RCACS has two Guidance Counselors who provide social and emotional support for students. Designated students are supported by their one-on-one paraprofessional and other students are provided (based on their IEP) with resource room support by the District. RCA staff members maintain close communication with families of SWD, which includes sending letters home to inform and nvolve parents.
