Breakout Sessions

ANYTIME, ANYWHERE: EARLY LEARNING RESOURCES FROM THE NEW YORK STATE LIBRARY AND PUBLIC BROADCASTING RESOURCES (ROOM A/B)

Marisa Gitto and Jackie Stapleton, Office of Cultural Education

This session will focus on topics connected to the P-3 curriculum through programs and turn-key materials that support early learning goals.

BEYOND THE CLASSROOM (CLARK AUDITORIUM)

Jani Kozlowski, Early Childhood Technical Assistance Center, UNC-Chapel Hill

Suzanne Bolling, NYSED's Office of Special Education

Join us to consider ways we can foster inclusion through cross-sector collaboration, policy initiatives, professional development, public awareness efforts, existing and redesigning funding strategies, and most importantly, partnerships with families.

EVERY CHILD CAN FLY, INCLUDING CHILDREN WITH DISABILITIES IN EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION (CLARK AUDITORIUM)

Jani Kozlowski, Early Childhood Technical Assistance Center, UNC-Chapel Hill

Learn strategies to foster inclusive learning environments, individualized teaching practices and meaningful family engagement.

INTRODUCING CULTURAL EDUCATION TO A P-3 AUDIENCE (ROOM A/B)

Kat Morehouse and James Jenkins, Office of Cultural Education

Participants will learn about cultural education resources and tactics to engage PreK and early elementary students with primary source materials, focusing on three-dimensional artifacts.

LEVERAGING HOME LANGUAGES FOR P-3 (MEMBERS' LOUNGE)

Alison Provencher and Kristen Vadnais, Resource Specialists, Hudson Valley/Capital District RBERN

Learn how to support students in the building of foundational skills in literacy, while recognizing, preserving, and utilizing the home languages that each child brings to the classroom.

P-3 INSTRUCTIONAL GUIDANCE TOOL IMPLEMENTATION BEST PRACTICES (STUDENT CENTER)

Dr. Tina Rose-Turrioglio, Facilitator, NYSED Office of Early Learning

Representatives from Niagara Falls CSD, Rome CSD, and Watertown City Schools

The P-3 Instructional Guidance Toolkit provides tools that create opportunities for teachers and leaders to collaboratively reflect on the practices, structure, and resources needed to implement and support effective instruction in the early grades.

2023 P-3 Summer Institute

Keynote Speakers

DR. RONALD FERGUSON

Dr. Ferguson provides active thought leadership for the Basics Learning Network (thebasics.org). He is an MIT-trained economist who has taught at Harvard Kennedy School since 1983, including 15 years as faculty director of the Achievement Gap Initiative. His research, writing, and consulting focus on issues of education and economic development.

DR. NONIE LESAUX

Dr. Lesaux leads a research program guided by the goal of increasing opportunities to learn for students from diverse linguistic, cultural, and economic backgrounds. Her research on reading development and instruction, and her work focused on using data to prevent reading difficulties, informs setting-level interventions, as well as public policy at the national and state level.
