An appeal may be initiated by a student or by the student’s parent/guardian or teacher and must be submitted to the student’s school principal. Through this appeal, the student seeks a waiver of the graduation assessment requirement in the subject area under appeal. Approval of the appeal will not change the student’s score on the Regents examination under appeal. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> To be eligible to appeal a score of 52-54, a student with a disability must meet all other conditions of appeal as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Have taken the Regents examination under appeal at least two times; 	Local Diploma

¹ All students, including students with disabilities, who score between 60-64 on up to two Regents examinations may appeal to graduate with a local or Regents diploma using this lower score. Students who are granted one appeal of a score between 60-64 from their local school district earn a Regents diploma. Students who are granted two appeals of a score between 60-64 earn a local diploma. For additional information about the appeal process, visit the Appeals, Safety Nets, and Superintendent Determination web page.
