The State Education Department does not discriminate on the basis of age, color, religion, creed, disability, marital status, veteran status, national origin, race, gender, genetic predisposition or carrier status, or sexual orientation in its educational programs, services, and activities. Portions of this publication can be made available in a variety of formats, including braille, large print or audio tape, upon request. Inquiries concerning this policy of nondiscrimination should be directed to the Department's Office for Diversity, Ethics, and Access, Room 152, Education Building, Albany, NY 12234.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Many State Education Department staff members have made significant contributions to the Social Studies Resource Guide With Core Curriculum. Edward Lalor and Roseanne DeFabio originated the concept of the resource guides and served as primary motivating forces in its development. George Gregory, JoAnn Larson, and Gary Warren, in collaboration with the entire Social Studies group, directed this curriculum development project, reviewed and selected materials for inclusion in the document, and offered their subject area expertise to the overall document. Anne Schiano, Jeanette Canaday, and Virginia Hammer developed and coordinated the process used to request and review the sample learning experiences from teachers across the State that appear in this publication. John Maryanopolis, Jan Christman, Major Capers, and Patricia Mulligan contributed their creative and technical capabilities to the overall design. Edith Toohey, Patricia Webster, and Judith Golombiski served as coordinating editors.

The State Education Department acknowledges the assistance of teachers and school administrators from across New York State, as well as resources from other states and countries, in the development of the Social Studies Core Curriculum. Local and State social studies professional associations gave invaluable support and publicity to the request for learning experiences. Special thanks to Cathie Fish Peterson who served as the Social Studies consultant/coach for the learning experiences project.
