

The New York State Education Department,
the Office of Bilingual Education and World Languages
presents

Key Shifts in World Languages in New York State

A one-day professional development opportunity for NYC DOE Administrators exploring key shifts in world language curriculum, assessment, and instruction in New York State.

Topics will include World-Readiness Standards, Can-Do Statements, and Integrated Performance Assessment.

March 1st, 2019
Queens College, CUNY
9 a.m. — 4 p.m.

Register early at:

<https://bit.ly/2MGQLmf>

Conference facilitator:
Mr. Paul Sandrock
ACTFL Director of Education

For more information, contact Candace Black, Director of World Languages, OBEWL at (518) 473-7505 or candace.black@nysed.gov.